

OLIVIA COGGIN EUDALY

Summary of Professional Experience:

Olivia's accomplishments are a reflection of her proclivity for creating community alliances and her desire to shape whole, healthy youth who become the foundational element of a strong community. From her early years as a speech, drama, and English teacher she experienced the positive impact of relationship building on those whom she taught and mentored. Throughout her career, Olivia's inspirational leadership style has provided the leading cutting edge for the development of community alliances, successful funding programs, hefty volunteer armies, foundational businesses, and the launching of strong community missions.

Olivia's years of involvement with Big Brothers Big Sisters reflect her desire to see grassroots efforts transform individual lives while building alliances and networks across states and communities to take life-changing work to scale.

A nationally sought after speaker and trainer, Mrs. Eudaly has among her notable achievements, awards, and memberships those from the International Association of Business Communicators, the Big Brothers Big Sisters Peer Award of Excellence, "Outstanding Woman in the Workplace" by the Fort Worth Mayor's Council, Fort Worth Business Press "Great Woman of Texas" distinction, American Society of Association Executives Summit Award, State Collaborative Leadership Council membership, State and National Mentoring Conferences, and White House engagements. She has testified before Congress. She was appointed by the Governor of Texas to serve for 9 years on the State Veterinary Medical Examiners Board. She was appointed by the County Judge of Tarrant County to serve for 9 years on the Tarrant County Hospital District Board. She was appointed by the Mayor of Fort Worth to serve on the Tarrant County Collaborative Leadership Council, the Fort Worth City Charter Revision Commission, and the Fort Worth Human Relations Commission. She is a charter member of Leadership Texas, a member of Leadership Fort Worth and is listed in Marquis Who's Who in America, Who's Who Among American Women, Outstanding Young Women of America Personalities of the South, Renaissance Women, Community Leaders and Noteworthy Americans
