

TIMOTHY P. BLODGETT
ACTING SERGEANT AT ARMS
UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Timothy P. Blodgett was sworn in as Acting Sergeant at Arms on January 11, 2021, during the 1st session of the 117th Congress. Mr. Blodgett was born in Rochester, N.Y. on June 16, 1966 and resides in Virginia with his wife Susan and their sons Jackson and Declan.

Mr. Blodgett attended Buffalo State College earning a B.A. Magna Cum Laude in Political Science and Philosophy 1988 and attended the Washington College of Law at American University earning a J.D. degree in 1992.

Mr. Blodgett was admitted in the State of New York, the District of Columbia, the Western District of New York and the Supreme Court bars. Mr. Blodgett clerked for Associate Chief Administrative Law Judge G. Marvin Bober and the Department of Labor and worked primarily on compensation issues involving Black Lung and Asbestosis from 1991-1993. Mr. Blodgett was then hired as an associate for Harris, Chesworth and O'Brien concentrating on labor and employment and municipal issues involving law enforcement agencies from 1994-2000. Mr. Blodgett then worked as an associate for Krukowski and Costello in Washington, D.C. concentrating on labor and employment matters from 2000-2002.

Mr. Blodgett began his career on Capitol Hill as a senior attorney and Administrative Counsel for the Chief Administrative Officer of the House from 2002-2009. He began with the Office of the Sergeant at Arms as Counsel and served as Deputy from 2009 to 2021.