

William C. Dillon Director, Semper Fit and Exchange Services

William C. Dillon serves as Director of the Semper Fit and Exchange Services Division for the United States Marine Corps. He previously served as the organization's Chief Financial Officer and has more than 20 years of experience in senior financial management positions with regional and national retail chains and in public accounting. He attended Villanova University receiving a BS in Accounting and DePaul University earning his MBA in Finance. He served as a Marine Corps Officer from 1969 to 1972. His Military Occupational Specialty was 0802 serving in Mike Battery 4th Battalion 10th Marines and Kilo Battery 4th Battalion 12th Marines.

Mr. Dillon is responsible for programs such as the Marine Corps Exchange, Food and Hospitality Operations, Semper Fit and Recreation, and common Marine Corps Community Services support functions such as nonappropriated fund contracting, finance, human resources, information technology, and procurement.