

Biographies

Jacqueline L. Wicecarver Acting Deputy Inspector General for Auditing

Ms. Wicecarver was named Acting Deputy Inspector General for Auditing in January 2016. Previously, she served as the senior executive in charge of providing oversight to DoD acquisitions. She was appointed to the Senior Executive Service in December 2011.

Ms. Wicecarver began her tenure with the Department of Defense, Office of Inspector in June 1990. She was the Program Director for the DoD Acquisition and Contract Management Program Audits from March 2004 to January 2011. As Program Director, Ms. Wicecarver focused on a wide variety of acquisition and contract management challenges facing the Department of Defense and led numerous acquisition and contract related audits.

Ms. Wicecarver is a recognized Department of Defense acquisition executive who has led numerous audits resulting in billions of dollars in monetary benefits. She has been awarded the Distinguished Civilian Service Award, the Meritorious Civilian Service Award, and the President's Council on Integrity and Efficiency Award for her achievements. Ms. Wicecarver is a graduate of the Federal Executive Institute and holds a Level III Internal Acquisition Certificate. She is a certified Information Security Specialist.

Prior to joining the DoD IG, Ms. Wicecarver worked for the U.S. Air Force as an accounting and finance manager, and for the U.S. Army as a technician performing logistics engineering, comptroller, and accounting and finance functions.