

Rachel Anderika, Head of Global Operations, Anchorage Digital

Rachel Anderika is the Head of Global Operations at Anchorage Digital. She is responsible for client operations across the company's footprint and leads engagement with prudential and market regulators. Rachel joined Anchorage Digital in 2022 and brings more than 20 years of experience in regulatory and risk management, plus nearly a decade of professional experience as a National Bank Examiner with the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency. Rachel also had eight years of experience at Promontory Financial Group, a premier bank regulatory consulting firm, later purchased by IBM, where she worked with numerous traditional financial institutions on risk management and compliance. Rachel also helped found Promontory's Digital Assets Risk and Compliance Team, where she guided digital assets custodians through the state and federal regulatory licensing process. Rachel holds a Bachelor's degree in finance and economics from King's College and currently resides in Connecticut.
