

BAIRD J. WEBEL

5323 Baltimore Avenue
Chevy Chase MD 20815

EXPERIENCE

Specialist in Financial Economics, Congressional Research Service, Washington DC, since 2003.

Written and oral economic analysis of legislation and policy proposals involving financial institutions, particularly insurance issues, the 2008 financial crisis, and financial regulatory reform. Topics include the Dodd-Frank Act, AIG, the Troubled Asset Relief Program, medical malpractice insurance, terrorism insurance, and general insurance regulation.

Section Research Manager, Congressional Research Service, Washington DC.

Banking, Insurance, Securities and Macroeconomic Section: 2015-2016 and 2019-2021.

Executive Branch Operations Section: 2023-2024.

Temporary assignment managing 10-12 analysts. Responsible for review of written products, performance reviews, and direction of research products, in addition to duties as an analytical specialist.

Legislative Director, Congressman John Cooksey, Washington, DC, 2000-2002.

Overall responsibility for legislative issues, including management of legislative staff as well as Legislative Assistant duties.

Legislative Assistant, Congressman John Cooksey, Washington, DC, 1997-2000,

Particularly responsible for legislative research, constituent correspondence and speechwriting regarding foreign affairs, defense, trade and health care issues. Primary liaison with the Committee on Veterans Affairs (105th Congress) and the Committee on International Relations (106th and 107th Congresses).

Legislative Correspondent, Congressman Tom Campbell, Washington, DC, 1996.

Assisted in establishing a new congressional office, particularly drafting standard correspondence on various issues, including immigration, Social Security, foreign affairs and economics. Performed special projects in conjunction with the Banking Committee.

Teaching Assistant, Georgetown University, Washington, DC, 1993-1995.

Assisted Professors Ibrahim Oweiss and Werner Gaab with graduate level courses in International Finance and International Trade. Duties included helping plan the structure of the courses, grading homework and exams, and tutoring individual students.

EDUCATION

Georgetown University, Edmund A. Walsh School of Foreign Service, Washington, DC.

Master of Arts in Economics and Master of Science in Foreign Service, conferred with distinction May 1996.

Stanford University, Stanford, California.

Bachelor of Arts in International Relations, conferred April 1992. Stanford program in Berlin, Germany, 1989-1990