

CHASE M. HALLER

PROFILE

Accomplished housing and consumer protection attorney with 12+ years of experience in public interest law. Proven leader in statewide enforcement, litigation, and policy advocacy. Skilled in managing high-impact initiatives, training professionals, and fostering interagency coordination to safeguard vulnerable populations.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Office of the Indiana Attorney General, Indianapolis, IN
Section Chief, Homeowner Protection Unit | Mar 2021 – Present

- Lead enforcement of state and federal housing laws across Indiana via a dedicated five-member team within a 400-member agency.
- Manage investigations, litigation, and compliance related to landlord/tenant matters, deed fraud and mortgage fraud matters, and other consumer real estate transactions.
- Use targeted litigation to improve lives of Hoosier consumers.

Neighborhood Christian Legal Clinic, Indianapolis, IN
Staff Attorney / Director of Housing & Consumer Justice | Jan 2012 – Mar 2021
Interim Executive Director | Nov 2019 – Apr 2020

- Represented low-income clients in foreclosure defense, landlord-tenant, and consumer claims.
- Designed and delivered training across Indiana on foreclosure prevention and housing law.
- Managed clinic operations as Interim Director; improved service delivery and volunteer engagement.

EDUCATION

University of Dayton School of Law, Dayton, OH
J.D., May 2011 — Vice President & Treasurer, Christian Legal Society; Pro Bono Commitment to Community Award

Indiana University, Bloomington, IN
B.A. in English (Departmental Honors), May 2008 — Guy Lemon Award for public writing; Legal Studies Club VP

LEADERSHIP AND VOLUNTEER ROLES

Fair Housing Center of Central Indiana, Indianapolis, Indiana January 2015 – Present

Board Member: Treasurer, Executive Committee

The mission of the Fair Housing Center of Central Indiana (FHCCI) is to ensure equal housing opportunities by eliminating housing discrimination through advocacy, enforcement, education and outreach.