

William Russell

William is a Director in GAO's Contracting and National Security Acquisitions team. He currently oversees a portfolio of issues related DOD industrial base and supply chain integrity, defense contracting, protection of critical technologies, and use of the Defense Production Act.

William joined GAO in 2002 and has served as Acting Director in GAO's Homeland Security and Justice team, managing a portfolio of issues related to aviation security, surface transportation security, and DHS research and development. He also managed audits covering a wide range of issues related to defense acquisitions, export controls, DHS management, and federal contracting.

William earned a master's degree in foreign affairs from the University of Virginia and a bachelor's degree in political science from Virginia Commonwealth University.