

Matthew J. Michel Biography

Matthew J. Michel is the Founder and Managing Partner of InvestorLink Capital Markets, where he develops data-driven platforms focused on market structure, regulatory intelligence, and capital formation. Over nearly two decades in capital markets, he has supported the distribution of more than 1,500 IPOs and follow-on offerings, representing over $400 billion in capital raised.

Mr. Michel is the creator of Recon360, a patent-pending, proprietary analytics platform that synthesizes structured and unstructured data to identify coordinated market manipulation and generate predictive alerts. His platform has demonstrated the ability to detect fraud patterns with meaningful lead time and has contributed to multiple SEC enforcement actions, as well as identifying billions in systemic market harm. His work has been featured by the Financial Times, Bloomberg, and other major financial media outlets.

Prior to founding InvestorLink, Mr. Michel held senior roles in financial institutions investment banking at Griffin Financial Group. Mr. Michel began his career at Merrill Lynch. He holds FINRA Series 7, 66, and 24 licenses and earned a BSBA from La Salle University.