

Hugh Carney Bio

Hugh Carney is Executive Vice President of Financial Institution Policy & Regulatory Affairs at the American Bankers Association (ABA), which represents banks of all sizes and charters across the United States. In this role, Mr. Carney leads advocacy on prudential regulatory issues, including regulatory capital, stress testing, and risk management. He also represents ABA and U.S. banking interests globally through the International Banking Federation.

Prior to joining ABA in February 2011, Mr. Carney served in the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency's Legislative and Regulatory Activities Division.

He holds a B.S. in Physics with a second major in Economics from the College of William & Mary and a J.D. from the University of Virginia School of Law.