

Patrick McDade is the Senior Vice President for Fraud and Technology Risk Management and Head of Internal Investigations at EverBank in Jacksonville, Florida. Since joining EverBank in 2018, Patrick has led the bank's oversight of fraud risk management, information technology and security, and internal controls. Patrick also serves as the Chair of the Consumer Bankers Association Fraud Management Committee, where he previously served as Vice Chair from 2023 to 2025. He was also selected as a delegate to the Aspen Institute's National Task Force on Fraud and Scam Prevention, a multi-sector initiative focused on developing a national strategy to protect Americans from financial fraud and scams.

Before entering the financial services industry, Patrick served as a state prosecutor, a federal prosecutor, and an Assistant Attorney General in Virginia, where he handled a broad range of criminal matters, including complex white-collar fraud cases, regulatory oversight, and the enforcement of consent orders.
