

Kyle Aud

President & CEO, Cornerstone Community Bank

Kyle Aud is a banking leader with over 20 years of experience in the financial services industry. As President and CEO of Cornerstone Community Bank, which opened in June 2026, Aud led the effort to establish the first new state-chartered bank in Kentucky since 2009 and the first full-service bank to open in Owensboro and Daviess County since 1997. The bank successfully raised over $26 million in capital from more than 200 local shareholders, reflecting the community's strong confidence in the team assembled to run the institution.

Prior to Cornerstone Community Bank, Aud served as Market President for German American Bank from August 2021 to May 2025, and prior to this, held the position of Senior Vice President at Independence Bank.

Aud is deeply committed to community service and leadership development. He has completed both the Leadership Owensboro and Leadership Kentucky programs and currently serves as Vice-Chair of Finance on the Board of Directors for the Greater Owensboro Chamber of Commerce. He also dedicates his time to serving on the boards of the Isaac Sterett Adventure Foundation and the Owensboro Municipal Utilities Commission.

A proud alumnus of Western Kentucky University, Aud earned both his undergraduate degree and MBA from WKU. He also attended the LSU Graduate School of Banking.

Kyle resides in Owensboro, Kentucky, with his wife, Sara. Together they have four children: Emelia Claire (deceased), Ellington (11), Holden (10), and Brooks (8). His commitment to family and community is evident in both his professional endeavors and personal life.
