

Timothy A. Schenk serves as President & Chief Executive Officer of the Kentucky Bankers Association (KBA), where he provides strategic leadership for the statewide organization representing Kentucky's banking industry. In this role, Tim works closely with member banks, the KBA Board of Directors, state and federal policymakers, regulators, and industry partners to advance a strong, innovative, and resilient banking environment across the Commonwealth.

With more than 20 years of experience in the financial services industry, Tim has built a distinguished career in executive leadership, strategic planning, advocacy, and relationship management. Tim is a co-founder of the Kentucky Bankers Association's Fraud Academy which educates over 500 bankers from 42 states annually on fraud issues ranging from check fraud to wire fraud.

Tim received his Juris Doctor from the University of Kentucky College of Law as well as a Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration. He is actively involved in numerous professional and civic organizations and remains passionate about strengthening Kentucky's banking industry and the communities its banks proudly serve.
