

Ji Hun Kim Biography

My name is Ji Hun Kim, and I am the President and Acting CEO of the Crypto Council for Innovation (CCI), a global alliance of industry leaders in the digital assets space. CCI focuses on advancing the promise of digital assets through research, education, policy, and advocacy. Prior to this role, I served as the Chief Legal & Policy Officer for CCI. Before joining CCI, I led the legal, policy, and regulatory affairs functions at Gemini, a global digital asset exchange and custodian. In that role, I set and implemented Gemini's global strategy for engaging with regulators, policymakers, and the government. Prior to that, I was an attorney with Kraken, another global digital asset exchange.

In prior roles, I was an attorney at Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP and served as federal judicial law clerk to the Honorable Robert D. Drain of the Southern District of New York, U.S. Bankruptcy Court. I am a graduate of Boston College (B.A.) and hold a J.D. from Fordham University School of Law.
