

Tiffany J. Smith Background

Tiffany J. Smith is a partner at WilmerHale, where she is a member of the Securities and Financial Service Department, and Co-Chair of the firm's Blockchain and Cryptocurrency Working Group. She has over 16 years of experience advising and representing broker-dealers, financial institutions, and technology companies (including crypto companies) on cutting-edge regulatory and compliance matters. She has a broad client base including traditional financial institutions, crypto platforms, NFT issuers and platforms, Web3 companies, payment platforms and venture capital firms.

Tiffany is a member of the Wall Street Blockchain Alliance, Women in Crypto, and the New York City Bar Association, where she is on the Presidential Task Force on Artificial Intelligence and Digital Technologies, and Co-Chair of the Subcommittee on Crypto Products and Services. She was ranked by Chambers FinTech USA 2024 & 2025 in the area of Blockchain & Cryptocurrencies, recognized as a "Next Generation Lawyer" in FinTech by The Legal 500 United States, and was featured on the 2023 Crain's New York Business Notable Women in Law List, American Lawyer's 2022 List of Northeast Trailblazers, and New York Law Journal's 2020 Rising Stars List.

Tiffany has a J.D. from The George Washington University Law School, and a BBA from The George Washington University.