

Dr. Melinda Cep, Vice President for Natural Solutions and Working Lands, Audubon Society. Dr. Cep leads the National Audubon Society's work to scale up conservation of working lands and advance natural climate solutions to support birds and the places they need. Prior to joining Audubon, Cep held senior staff positions in the United States House of Representatives, the US Department of Agriculture, and the World Wildlife Fund.