

Mrs. Kathy Armstrong, Parent of a 14(c) employee, Beaver Dam, Wisconsin. Mrs.

Armstrong is the mother of a 37-year-old daughter (Klara) with Down Syndrome. She has been a special education teacher for 40 years and is active in Special Olympics. She advocates at the state and federal level for service choice and in the best interest of individuals with disabilities. Mrs. Armstrong has previously said, “We owe it to all people who don’t have a voice with developmental disabilities to be able to find success, happiness, and support in the job they choose.”