

Chris G. Neeley

Short Bio

Chris G. Neeley serves as Superintendent of the South Carolina Public Charter School District, South Carolina's statewide public charter school district serving more than 31,000 students in 55 schools. He is also a Colonel in the United States Army Reserve and a Bronze Star recipient, with more than two decades of military service. A father of three and graduate of Clemson University, Mr. Neeley's education philosophy is simple: Kids First—see the individual child, recognize the unique spark within them, and create opportunities for every child to reach their full potential. His career spans public education, military leadership, public policy, and government service. Please welcome Superintendent Chris Neeley.
