

David Rubinstein is a History Ph.D. Candidate at Cornell University. His research explores migration and state-building in post-1945 Poland. He is an alumnus of the U.S.-Poland Fulbright Program and previously worked for Vermont Governor Philip B. Scott. He and his wife are residents of Syracuse, NY.