

Biography

Daniel Aronowitz leads the Employee Benefits Security Administration after being confirmed by the United States Senate and after receiving approval from the Senate Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions Committee on a bipartisan basis.

The former president and founder of Encore Fiduciary, formerly Euclid, a leading fiduciary liability insurance underwriting company for America's employee benefit plans, Mr. Aronowitz has 35 years of experience in the professional liability industry as a coverage lawyer and underwriter, and is a widely recognized fiduciary liability expert, thought leader and advocate for sponsors of employee benefit plans.

Before joining the Trump Administration, he was the author of The Fid Guru Blog, the Fiduciary Liability Insurance Handbook, the fiduciary liability insurance chapter of the Trustee Handbook published by the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans, and a co-author of the Professional Liability Underwriting Society's Registered Professional Liability Underwriter training module on fiduciary insurance.

He is a graduate of The Ohio State University and Vanderbilt University School of Law and has achieved the RPLU+ designation from the Professional Liability Underwriting Society.
