

Chad Savage, M.D.

Board-Certified Internist | President, DPC Action

Dr. Chad Savage is a board-certified internal medicine physician practicing in Brighton, Michigan. A University of Michigan graduate, he earned his M.D. from Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine and completed his Internal Medicine residency at Washington University School of Medicine/Barnes-Jewish Hospital in St. Louis.

From 2003 to 2015, Dr. Savage practiced at St. John Providence/Henry Ford Health System, where he founded Premier Internal Medicine. In 2015, he established YourChoice Direct Care—one of Michigan's first Direct Primary Care (DPC) practices. DPC restores the doctor-patient relationship by eliminating third-party interference, enabling transparent pricing, longer visits, and personalized care.

As President of DPC Action, a national organization dedicated to advancing Direct Primary Care, Dr. Savage works with policymakers across the country to remove regulatory barriers and expand patient-centered models. He has testified before state legislatures, authored policy papers and op-eds, and appeared in national media advocating for market-driven solutions that lower costs and improve access to high-quality care.
