

Mrs. Lonnie Ali, Widow of Muhammad Ali and Co-Founder, Muhammad Ali Center, Louisville, Kentucky. Mrs. Ali has dedicated her life to charitable causes and humanitarian efforts, including her work with her husband to launch the Muhammad Ali Parkinson's Center in Phoenix, Arizona, and the Muhammad Ali Center in Louisville. In addition to her advocacy on Parkinson's disease research, Mrs. Ali has advocated for children's rights and served on the Presidential Commission for the Study of Bioethical Issues from 2010 to 2013. She has received multiple awards for her work and was inducted into the National Consortium for Academics and Sports Hall of Fame in 2013.