

President, Sedgwick Government Solutions

ROBERT JOHNSON

Summary

Robert is president of Sedgwick Government Solutions, LLC. Having joined Sedgwick in 1991, Robert has had a wide array of roles and responsibilities within the organization. The group he currently leads is focused on services provided to governmental entities, including the U.S. federal government. In addition, Robert serves as executive sponsor on several of Sedgwick's large client and insurance carrier relationships.

Previously, Robert led teams facilitating integration of our mergers and acquisitions and new client program onboarding. Earlier stops during his Sedgwick career had him overseeing divisions dedicated to consumer warranty service, professional liability, Medicare compliance, special investigative unit, and our specialized Ohio workers compensation state fund services. During his early tenure at Sedgwick, he also served as account executive on national accounts; and he served as national director of client account management at Sedgwick responsible for all customer satisfaction, data analysis and strategy.

Robert is a graduate of the University of South Carolina. He and his wife reside in Georgetown, South Carolina; and they have a son living outside of Chattanooga, Tennessee, with his wife and one granddaughter.
