

Autmn Begay Bio:

Autumn Begay serves as Senior Corporate Counsel at CHG Healthcare, the nation's largest locum tenens healthcare staffing company. Headquartered in Salt Lake City, Utah, CHG serves all 50 states through its family of brands, including CompHealth, Weatherby Healthcare, Global Medical Staffing, LocumSmart, and Modio. Ms. Begay leads regulatory compliance, legislative advocacy, and government relations across the group.

Ms. Begay's practice centers on the regulatory frameworks governing locum tenens physicians and advanced practice clinicians, including healthcare staffing agency licensing, worker classification, and the federal and state laws that shape how temporary clinicians serve patients in rural and underserved communities. She works closely with state legislatures, federal lawmakers, and industry coalitions, including the National Association of Locum Tenens Organizations (NALTO), to advance policies that preserve and expand access to healthcare.

Prior to joining CHG, Ms. Begay served for six years at Intermountain Healthcare, one of the nation's leading integrated health systems, in roles of increasing responsibility culminating as Compliance and Ethics Director and Compliance Officer. In that capacity, she oversaw regulatory compliance programs across hospital and clinical operations. She began her legal career in private practice in Salt Lake City.

Ms. Begay is a graduate of the J. Reuben Clark Law School at Brigham Young University and is a member of the Utah State Bar. She serves as Co-Chair of the Salt Lake Chamber's Health Policy Committee and is active in Utah Lawyers for Good Policy.
