

Dan Morenoff founded the ACR Project's predecessor and has served both on its Board of Directors and as its Executive Director since inception. He is also an Adjunct Fellow at the Manhattan Institute. Mr. Morenoff has practiced law at Hughes & Luce, LLP, K&L | Gates, LLP, The Morenoff Firm, PLLC, and Guest & Gray, P.C. Earlier in his career, Mr. Morenoff served on the legislative staff of Senator Phil Gramm.

Mr. Morenoff holds a BA from Columbia College of Columbia University in the City of New York and a JD from the University of Chicago Law School. He has also served in the leadership of several community organizations in Dallas, Texas.