

Edward Watts

Director/Producer

Brief Bio

In his nine year career, Edward Watts (aged 35) has directed and filmed twenty documentaries for international broadcasters including the BBC, PBS and the UK's Channel 4.

Prior to Escaping ISIS, his critically acclaimed documentaries have covered many important public interest subjects including war crimes in the Democratic Republic of Congo, a humanitarian crisis for migrants fleeing war and drought in East Africa to child poverty and exploitation in India.

His film-making aspires to bring out the humanity and courage of fascinating characters who live in extraordinary, challenging circumstances. Other examples of his work can be seen on his website www.edwardwattsfilms.com.
