

DAVE STEWART*Executive Vice President and General Counsel

Dave Stewart directs Vulcan's legal affairs and serves as general counsel to Vulcan's leadership and staff. As Executive Vice President, he is immersed in all of Vulcan's and Paul Allen's businesses. His responsibilities include legal affairs, government relations, compliance and risk management, and Vulcan's African properties. He plays an integral role acting as a liaison between Vulcan and all external affiliates.

Prior to joining Vulcan, Dave had been a partner at three of the world's leading law firms: Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati (WSGR), one of the world's foremost law firms representing the technology sector; Howrey, which was the leading global antitrust firm; and Sidley & Austin. Dave also served as Vice President of RealNetworks, where he conceived and executed RealNetworks' antitrust strategy, which resulted in seminal legal decisions in Europe and Asia. Dave holds a M.Sc. in Jurisprudence from the University of Edinburgh, a J.D. from the University of California Berkeley, and an A.B. in Government from Harvard College.
