

SHEBA CROCKER
Vice President for Humanitarian Policy and Practice, CARE USA

Sheba Crocker is CARE USA's Vice President for Humanitarian Policy and Practice. Sheba provides overall leadership and strategic guidance for CARE USA's humanitarian operations, programs, and policy. For the 2019-2020 academic year, Sheba is also a Centennial Fellow at Georgetown University's School of Foreign Service.

Sheba came to CARE after serving at the State Department as Assistant Secretary for International Organization Affairs, Director in the Office of Policy Planning and Chief of Staff to the Deputy Secretary of State. Her prior government service includes additional roles at the State Department and National Security Council. Sheba has extensive inter-governmental and non-governmental organization experience including at the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation; the United Nations; and the Center for Strategic and International Studies. She has taught at Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies, George Washington University, and American University.

Sheba received a bachelor of arts from Stanford University, a master of arts from the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, and a Juris Doctor from Harvard Law School.