

Biography

Mulumba, Moses

Mr. Mulumba is a Lawyer with special interest in International Human Rights, Global Health and Sexual Reproductive Health and Rights. He is the founder and current Executive Director of the Center for Health, Human Rights and Development (CEHURD). He has a Bachelor's of Laws (LLB), Post Graduate Bar qualification, a Master of Laws and Master of Philosophy in health sciences. Mulumba has widely researched, published and taught in the various areas of global health and international human rights. He is has been an African Advisor to the HIV and the Law Commission and a former board member to the Uganda National Drug Authority (NDA). His recent projects include work around the global financing facility (GFF) implementation in Uganda, the impact of the global policies on health systems in low income countries and movement building in civil society groups.