

AMENDMENT TO H. RES. 759
OFFERED BY MR. PERRY OF PENNSYLVANIA

In the penultimate preamble clause, strike “; and” at the end and insert a semicolon.

In the final preamble clause, strike the colon and all that follows through the end of the clause and insert a semicolon.

After the final preamble clause, insert the following new preamble clauses:

Whereas, on March 1, 2018, the House Science, Space, and Technology Committee published a Majority Staff Report, entitled ““Russian Attempts to Influence U.S. Domestic Energy Markets by Exploiting Social Media” that found “According to information provided by Twitter, more than four percent of all IRA tweets were related to energy and environment issues, a significant portion of content when compared to the eight percent of IRA tweets that were related to the election in the U.S.”;

Whereas the House Science, Space, and Technology Committee Majority Staff Report further found “Russia exploited American social media as part of its concerted effort to disrupt U.S. energy markets and influence domestic energy policy...The IRA targeted pipelines, fossil fuels, climate change, and other divisive issues to influence public policy in the U.S.”; and

Whereas, on January 6, 2017, the Director of National Intelligence published a report, entitled “Background to ‘Assessing Russian Activities and Intentions in Recent U.S. Elections’: The Analytical Process and Cyber Incident Attribution” that found “RT runs anti-fracking programming highlighting environmental issues and the impacts on public health. This is likely reflective of the Russian Government’s concern about the impact of fracking and U.S. natural gas production on the global energy market and the potential challenges to Gazprom’s profitability”: Now, therefore, be it
