

Matt Pottinger chairs the China program at the Foundation for Defense of Democracies and is a distinguished visiting fellow at the Hoover Institution. He worked in senior roles at the White House from 2017 to 2021, including as U.S. deputy national security advisor. Prior to his White House role, Pottinger served as a U.S. Marine with deployments to Iraq and Afghanistan. His book The Boiling Moat: Urgent Steps to Defend Taiwan was published in 2024.