1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE; TABLE OF CONTENTS.

4       (a) SHORT TITLE.—This Act may be cited as the 5       “Building Opportunities Overseas to Strengthen and 6       Train American Business Act” or the “BOOST American 7       Business Act”.

1 (b) TABLE OF CONTENTS.—The table of contents of 2 this Act is as follows:

- Sec. 1. Short title; table of contents.
- Sec. 2. Findings; sense of Congress; statement of policy.
- Sec. 3. Purposes.
- Sec. 4. Director General of the Foreign and Commercial Diplomatic Services.
- Sec. 5. Establishment of the Commercial Diplomatic Service.
- Sec. 6. Commercial Diplomatic Service assignments.
- Sec. 7. Commercial Diplomatic Service training.
- Sec. 8. Strengthening commercial diplomacy expertise at the Department of State.
- Sec. 9. Contracting authority.
- Sec. 10. Definitions.

3 SEC. 2. FINDINGS; SENSE OF CONGRESS; STATEMENT OF 4 POLICY.

5 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following find-6 ings:

7 (1) On December 7, 1979, President Carter
8 issued Executive Order 12175 (44 Fed. Reg. 70703;
9 relating to Reorganization of functions relating to 10 international trade) which implemented Reorganiza-11 tion Plan No. 3 of 1979, initiating the move of the 12 Foreign Commercial Service from the Department of 13 State to the Department of Commerce.

14 (2) There are an estimated 207 Foreign Com-
15 mercial Service officers currently employed by the 16 Department of Commerce. These personnel are de-
17 ployed across 80 United States diplomatic and con-
18 sular posts, roughly one-third of all such posts.

19 (3) Where the Foreign Commercial Service is 20 not present, the role and function of commercial di-

1       plomacy officer is performed by Economic Foreign 2       Service Officers employed by the Department of 3       State.

4           (4) The transfer of the Foreign Commercial 5       Service to the Department of Commerce removed 6       important trade related functions which had been 7       central to the mission of the Department of State 8       since 1789, creating a counterproductive division be-9       tween foreign policy and commercial diplomacy.

10          (5) The fiscal year 2026 Congressional Budget
11       Justification of the Department of Commerce pro-
12       posed a staff reduction of 39 percent for the Global 13       Markets business unit, which includes the Foreign 14       Commercial Service. At this requested level, the size 15       of the Global Markets business unit would be its 16       smallest in more than two decades.

17          (6) The fiscal year 2026 Congressional Budget
18       Justification of the Department of Commerce pro-
19       posed a funding reduction for the International 20       Trade Agency, which also includes the Foreign Com-21       mercial Service, of approximately 31 percent from 22       the fiscal year 2025 enacted level, which was the 23       lowest request for such agency since 2009.

24          (7) The fiscal year 2027 Congressional Budget
25       Justification of the Department of Commerce pro-

1 poses a funding reduction of approximately 51 per-2 cent from the fiscal year 2026 estimated level for 3 the Global Markets business unit.

4 (8) Cuts to the Foreign Commercial Service are 5 inconsistent with the priorities articulated by Presi-
6 dent Trump and contrary to the commercial diplo-
7 macy goals and objectives of the United States.

8 (9) The National Security Strategy of the 9 United States published in November 2025 states,
10 “economic security is fundamental to national secu-
11 rity” and “the United States will prioritize rebal-
12 ancing our trade relations, reducing trade deficits,
13 opposing barriers to our exports, and ending dump-
14 ing and other anti-competitive practices that hurt
15 American industries and workers.”

16 (10) On February 12, 2025, President Trump
17 issued Executive Order 14211 (90 Fed. Reg. 9831;
18 relating to One Voice for America’s Foreign Rela-
19 tions) which directs the Secretary of State “to re-
20 form the foreign service in areas such as recruiting, 21 performance, evaluation, and retention standards to 22 ensure only the most qualified and committed indi-
23 viduals represent American interests abroad.”

24 (11) On March 19, 2026, in testimony before
25 the House Foreign Affairs Committee, the Under

1 Secretary of State for Management testified that 2 “our Econ officers in the past have been trained to 3 do economic reporting . . . now we are shifting to 4 a situation where commercial diplomacy is our pol-
5 icy. So we’re working very closely with our Econ of-6 ficers to make sure they have the skill sets to go out 7 there and do that commercial diplomacy.”

8 (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-9 gress that—

10 (1) the Commercial Diplomatic Service, as es-11 tablished by this Act, should be composed of 750 of-12 ficers by 2028 and the Commercial Diplomatic Serv-13 ice should continue to expand as necessary to ensure 14 the Department of States deploys a highly effective 15 and efficient commercial diplomacy enterprise;

16 (2) individuals charged with leading commercial
17 diplomatic efforts on behalf of the United States re-
18 quire specialized skillsets that are sufficiently dif-
19 ferent from other career tracks in the Foreign Serv-
20 ice to warrant distinctive hiring practices and rota-21 tional deployment cycles; and 22 (3) that commercial diplomacy posting both

23 within the United States and at United States diplo-24 matic and consular posts should only be filled by 25 qualified personnel.

1           (c) STATEMENT OF POLICY.—It is the policy of the 2 United States to provide United States businesses with ef-
3 fective support in their attempts to access and remain 4 competitive in international markets, including by 5 prioritizing commercial diplomacy efforts within United 6 States foreign policy and consolidating disparate inter-
7 national commercial diplomacy enterprises under the di-
8 rection of the Secretary of State, consistent with the re-
9 sponsibility of the Secretary of State in the management 10 of foreign affairs.

11 SEC. 3. PURPOSES.

12           The purposes of this Act are to—

13           (1) create a cadre of specialists within the For-14 eign Service of the Department of State, dedicated 15 to commercial diplomacy, and distinct from other ca-
16 reer paths of the Foreign Service;

17           (2) align and integrate commercial diplomacy
18 efforts with other foreign policy priorities by remov-19 ing institutional barriers and expanding the size of 20 the commercial diplomacy enterprise at the Depart-
21 ment of State;

22           (3) recognize that Economic Officers in the 23 Foreign Service are already performing the functions 24 of commercial diplomats in two-thirds of all United 25 States diplomatic and consular posts and provide

1 such officers with the necessary training to be suc-
2 cessful;

3 (4) fill the void in the United States commercial 4 diplomacy program created by the steady decrease in 5 resources assigned to the Foreign Commercial Serv-6 ice under the Department of Commerce; and 7 (5) ensure that commercial diplomacy efforts of 8 the Department of State are conducted in coordina-

9 tion with the Department of Commerce and other
10 relevant Federal agencies, consistent with their stat-
11 utory authorities.

12 SEC. 4. DIRECTOR GENERAL OF THE FOREIGN AND COM-
13 MERCIAL DIPLOMATIC SERVICES.

14 Chapter 2 of title I of the Foreign Service Act of 15 1980 (22 U.S.C. 3921 et seq.) is amended by striking sec-
16 tion 208 and inserting the following:
