

Celeste Drake

American Federation of Labor & Congress of Industrial Organizations

Celeste Drake is the Trade & Globalization Policy Specialist at the AFL-CIO, where she advocates for reforms to U.S. trade policy to create shared gains from trade on behalf of working families. She has been actively following negotiations for the Trans-Pacific and Trans-Atlantic trade and investment deals, among others, and has testified before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, various House Subcommittees, the International Trade Commission, and the Executive Branch's Trade Policy Staff Committee.

In 2012, Ms. Drake's article "U.S. Trade and Economic Policy: Workers Need More Than Strong Labor Chapters" was published in the American Bar Association Journal of Labor & Employment Law (27 ABA J. Labor & Employment L. 455). Prior to joining the AFL-CIO, she served as Legislative Director for Congresswoman Linda T. Sánchez (D-CA), Legislative Counsel for Congressman Lloyd Doggett (D-TX), and Clerk for the Honorable David R. Thompson of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 9th Circuit. Ms. Drake, a former member of both the NEA and UFCW unions, has a J.D., an M.P.P., and a B.A. from the University of California, Los Angeles.
