

Tenzin N. Tethong is the Director of the Tibetan Service at Radio Free Asia, Washington, D.C. He is a former editor of Sheja, a Tibetan language magazine, and the Tibetan Review. He has also served the Tibetan government-in-exile as Representative of His Holiness the Dalai Lama from 1973 to 1986 in New York, and minister and Chair of the Tibetan cabinet in Dharmasala. He is also the founder of the Tibet Fund, the International Campaign for Tibet, and Potala Publications.