

Francisco Bencosme
Senior Advisor to the Acting Assistant Secretary
Bureau of East Asian and Pacific Affairs

Francisco Bencosme is a Senior Advisor for the East Asian and Pacific Affairs bureau at the Department of State. Prior to joining the Department of State, he was a Senior Policy Advisor at the Open Society Foundations covering Asia and Latin America. During his time at Amnesty International USA, Francisco led the U.S. human rights policy and advocacy program towards the Asia Pacific. Francisco has testified before Congress and has provided media commentary on multiple outlets including the New York Times, Washington Post, and the Wall Street Journal. In 2018, Francisco was named one of The Hill's Top 2018 Lobbyist for their campaign on Myanmar Rohingya issues. Before joining AIUSA, he served as a Professional Staff Member on the U.S. Senate Foreign Relations Committee, where he assisted Democratic Senators on issues related to East Asia/Pacific, South Asia, and State Department/USAID oversight. Francisco also served as the President of the Congressional Hispanic Staff Association and as a board member of the Foreign Affairs Congressional Staff Association. Francisco is also a Truman Security Fellow, a Penn-Kemble Fellow, and an International Career Advancement Program alum. Francisco received his Master of Science in Foreign Service from Georgetown University, a graduate certificate from the USAF Air University, and his B.A. from Wake Forest University.