

Bruce Klingner
Senior Research Fellow, Northeast Asia
The Heritage Foundation

Since 2007, Bruce Klingner has specialized in Korean and Japanese affairs as the Senior Research Fellow for Northeast Asia at The Heritage Foundation.

Klingner previously served for 20 years with Central Intelligence Agency and the Defense Intelligence Agency. He was CIA's Deputy Division Chief for Korea, responsible for the analysis of political, military, economic and leadership issues for the president of the United States and other senior U.S. policymakers. Prior to that, he was the chief of CIA's Korea branch, which analyzed military developments during a nuclear crisis with North Korea.

Klingner has testified before the House Foreign Affairs Committee, the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence and the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence.

He is a distinguished graduate of the National War College, where he received a master's degree in National Security Strategy in 2002. He also holds a master's degree in Strategic Intelligence from the Defense Intelligence College and a bachelor's degree in Political Science from Middlebury College in Vermont.
