

JILL MARIE TAHMOORESSI
Mother of Andrew Paul Tahmooressi

Jill Tahmooressi is a resident of Florida since 1960 and is the mother of United States Marine Corps. Sgt. Andrew Paul Tahmooressi an In-active Reservist with the Individual Ready Reserve until 8/24/2016. She is a licensed Register Nurse in the state of Florida since 1980, working full time at Miami Children's Hospital, Miami Florida since 1980. As a Nursing Director of Ambulatory Services, she oversees 8 out-patient centers serving the community with urgent care and procedural sedation. Most of her tenure as a certified pediatric nurse has been spent inpatient yet as of 2009 she began overseeing the Ambulatory service lines which expands across three counties in the South Florida area. She holds two national certifications, Pediatric American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC) & National Certified School Nurse while serving in multiple professional positions within the Florida Nurses Association elected as the South Region Director, serving 600+ nurses in the Florida Nurses Association.

Tahmooressi, married to Khosrow Paul Tahmooressi since 1980, father of Andrew Paul Tahmooressi, resides in the family home in Weston Florida. Jill & Khosrow Tahmooressi is the parents of Andrea Grace, age 27, a practicing Doctor of Chiropractic Studies in North Carolina and Andrew Paul, age 25, an In-active Sergeant reservist with the U.S.M.C., currently incarcerated in El Hongo Penitentiary, Tecate, Mexico.