

Thomas Melito

Director, International Affairs and Trade

U.S. Government Accountability Office

Dr. Thomas Melito is a director in the International Affairs and Trade Team, with more than 29 years at GAO. In this capacity, he is primarily responsible for GAO's humanitarian assistance and multilateral portfolio. Under Dr. Melito's leadership, GAO:

- Completed several reviews of management issues at the United Nations including examinations of the compensation of UN employees and the renovation of the headquarters' building.
- Produced a series of reports examining U.S. international food assistance including the impact of cargo preference, the use of market assessments and the effectiveness of cash-based food aid.
- Examined the cost of UN Peacekeeping in comparison to a comparable US mission

Dr. Melito holds an MA and PhD in economics from Columbia University and a BS in industrial and labor relations from Cornell University.
