

Brian M. Mazanec, Ph.D.

*Acting Director, International Affairs and Trade
U.S. Government Accountability Office*

Brian Mazanec is an Acting Director with the U.S. Government Accountability Office (GAO)'s International Affairs and Trade team, where he is responsible for a portfolio focused on international security. He leads and manages multiple teams evaluating a variety of national security programs and activities related to intelligence and counterintelligence; counterterrorism; building foreign partner capacity through security cooperation and assistance; cybersecurity; and foreign military financing and sales. Prior to his current position, Dr. Mazanec worked in GAO's Defense Capabilities and Management team, where he led work focused on defense and intelligence issues. He received his Ph.D. from George Mason University's Schar School of Policy and Government and also holds a B.A. in political science from the University of Richmond and a M.S. in defense and strategic studies from Missouri State University's Department of Defense and Strategic Studies.