

Emmanuela Douyon
Nou pap dòm

Emmanuela Douyon is an economist and a leader of the Petrochallenger and Nou Pap Dòm social movements demanding greater government accountability and transparency in the wake of the PetroCaribe scandal. She is also Founder of POLICITÉ, a consulting firm and think tank that focuses on economic development. Ms. Douyon is one of the key voices of the Haitian feminist movement, advocating for expanded social, political and economic opportunities for women. Prior to her current roles, Douyon served as an Economic Attaché for the Haitian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the Chargeé de Mission of Project Management for the Technical Secretariat of the Haiti's Inter-Ministerial Committee for Territorial Planning and Agriculture.
