

Ana Rosa Quintana-Lovett

Deputy Assistant Secretary for Central America and Migration Affairs,
Bureau of Western Hemisphere Affairs,
U.S. Department of State

(U) Ana Rosa Quintana-Lovett is the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Central America and Migration Affairs. Before assuming this role, she served as a Senior Advisor in the Secretary of State's Policy Planning Staff (S/P) and later served as a Senior Advisor in the Counselor's office.

(U) Prior to joining the State Department, she served on the Trump-Vance Transition Team. She formerly worked at the Vandenberg Coalition, and her previous government experience includes serving as the Staff Director for Western Hemisphere for House Foreign Affairs Committee Chairman Michael McCaul (R-TX). In that capacity, she was the lead Republican staffer in the U.S. House of Representatives on U.S. policy towards Latin America and the Caribbean and also managed the congressman's equities before the Committee on Homeland Security and the U.S.-Mexico Interparliamentary Group.

(U) Before serving in Congress, she led the Latin America portfolio at The Heritage Foundation for seven years and started her career in DC at the Defense Intelligence Agency. She earned both a bachelor's degree and a master's degree from Florida International University. She and her husband Paul have a daughter and a son.