

Holly Solberg
Director, Emergency and Humanitarian Assistance
CARE USA

Holly Solberg is the Director for the Emergency and Humanitarian Assistance Unit at CARE USA. She has twenty years of experience in international relief and development programming and operations. She has significant expertise in emergency management and humanitarian leadership including strategy, organizational, human resources and systems development, training and learning, coordination, networking and teambuilding. She has worked with CARE for nearly 19 years, based in Atlanta, Ethiopia, Mozambique, Thailand, Kenya, Switzerland and currently in Washington, DC. She leads CARE USA's emergency and humanitarian team that provides technical support and oversight for emergency preparedness and response operations as well as the coordination of CARE USA's engagement in emergency responses on behalf of CARE International.

Ms. Solberg obtained a Master of Arts (MA) in Humanitarian Assistance from the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy and the School of Nutrition Science and Policy, Tufts University, in 2000. Ms. Solberg is from the USA, is currently based in Washington, DC and speaks English and Spanish.