

Dr. Nancy Okail

Dr. Nancy Okail is the Executive Director of the Tahrir Institute for Middle East Policy (TIMEP). She brings more than 15 years of experience promoting democracy and development in the Middle East and North Africa region to this role.

Prior to joining TIMEP, Dr. Okail was the director of Freedom House's Egypt program. She has also worked with the Egyptian government as a senior evaluation officer of foreign aid and has managed programs for Egyptian pro-democracy organizations that challenged the Mubarak regime. Dr. Okail was one of the defendants convicted and sentenced to prison in the widely publicized case of 43 non-governmental organization workers charged with using foreign funds to foment unrest in Egypt.

Dr. Okail holds a Ph.D. from the University of Sussex in the U.K. where her dissertation examined the power relations of foreign aid.
