

Dr. Frederic Wehrey

Frederic Wehrey is a senior fellow in the Middle East Program at the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace focused on North Africa and the Gulf. He has been traveling regularly to Libya since 2009 and is the author of a recently-published book on the country's struggle after its 2011 revolution, The Burning Shores: Inside the Battle for the New Libya (Farrar, Straus & Giroux, 2018). His articles and commentary have appeared in The New York Review of Books, The New York Times, The New Yorker, The Atlantic, and other publications. He has consulted on Libya for the United Nations and has testified before the U.S. Senate and the House of Representatives. Wehrey is also a twenty-one year veteran of the active and reserve components of the U.S. Air Force, with tours across the Middle East and North Africa. He holds a doctorate in International Relations from Oxford University.
