

Anthony T. Salvia

Current: 1 Director at Global Strategic Communications Group specialized in governmental relations and public advocacy (since 2009). Designs and implements media outreach to enable U.S. and overseas clients to achieve their public affairs and policy goals at home and/or abroad. Specialized in European, Russian and Eurasian affairs. 2) Director, American Institute in Ukraine, a privately funded, U.S., non-profit organization providing information, education, and analysis on U.S. policy toward Ukraine and reflecting the diversity of opinion on foreign policy in the United States.

Other positions held: Director of Communications, IESE Business School (1997-2005), Barcelona, Spain; Director of the Moscow Programming Center of Radio Free Europe/Radio Liberty (1993-1996), Moscow, Russia; Executive Assistant to the President of Radio Free Europe/Radio Liberty (1988-1993), Munich, Germany.

Positions held as an appointee of President Ronald Reagan: Acting and Deputy Director of Congressional Affairs in the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency (1987-88), Washington, D.C.; Special Advisor to the Undersecretary of State for Political Affairs, U.S. Department of State (1983-87), Washington, D.C.; Staff Assistant to the Legal Advisor, U.S. Department of State (1981-83), Washington, D.C.; Staff Assistant, European and NATO Affairs (1981), U.S. Department of Defense, Washington, D.C.

Other: Advisor to the Permanent Representative of the Holy See to the United Nations with focus on the UN's 1st Committee (Arms Control and Disarmament), 2012-present; lecturer on international politics at IESE Business School, New York (2010-present); frequent contributor to global cable news networks – Al Jazeera, Arise, CC-TV, RT, Sky News, etc.

Education: Masters Degree in European Affairs and International Economics, The Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies (1981), Washington, D.C.; Bachelors Degree in International Relations, The Johns Hopkins University (1977), Baltimore, Maryland.

Languages: English, French, German, Russian, Spanish