

Lucy Usoyan Biography

Ms. Lucy Usoyan is an American citizen and a Ezidi human rights activist hailing from Armenia. She holds a BA degree in Economics and a Legal Studies Degree from University of Washington. She is the founder and president of the Ezidi Relief Fund, an advocate for humanitarian crisis that refugees and internal displaced persons (IDPs) are facing currently in Kurdish regions of Turkey and Syria. She has attended numerous conferences as a speaker and other events to inform the public of the plight of the Ezidis throughout the history including the recent atrocities inflicted on them by ISIS.