

Dr. A. Wess Mitchell is a principal and co-founder at The Marathon Initiative, a U.S. think-tank dedicated to studying great-power competition. From 2017-2019, Mitchell served as U.S. Assistant Secretary of State for European and Eurasian Affairs, where he was responsible for diplomatic relations with the 50 countries of Europe and Eurasia, as well as the institutions of NATO, the EU and OSCE. He currently serves as a Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors at the Center for European Policy Analysis, Senior Advisor in the Office of Strategic Stability of the U.S. Institute of Peace, and Non-Resident Fellow in the Applied History Project at Harvard University's Belfer Center. In 2020, Mitchell was appointed by Secretary General Jens Stoltenberg to co-chair (with former German Defense Minister Thomas de Maizière) the NATO 2030 Reflection Group, a high-level group of experts from North America and Europe charged with providing recommendations for the political reform and strategic adaptation of the NATO Alliance. Mitchell is the author of three books, including most recently The Grand Strategy of the Habsburg Empire. He holds a doctorate in political science from Freie Universität in Berlin and a master's degree from Georgetown University's School of Foreign Service.
