

Lars Thaaning Pedersen, CEO of Vineyard Wind, has been involved in offshore wind development globally for more than 15 years. In that time, he's worked on every phase of a project, from development and construction to operations and maintenance. He's seen firsthand the growth of the industry in Europe, and is now leading the first project in the US, one that will plant the seeds for a thriving American workforce. He works out of the Vineyard Wind's corporate office in Boston.
