

Employment

Legal Counsel, India: Alliance Defending Freedom (January, 2012 – present)

- Specialised in litigation before various courts and commissions within India in the area of religious freedom and minority rights.
- Experienced in conducting legal trainings in minority rights with a special emphasis on the constitutional law and anti-conversion laws in Indian states.
- Networking with government authorities, Members of Parliament, quasi-judicial bodies, including the National Human Rights Commission and the National Commission for Minorities.
- Key Achievements: In Evangelical Fellowship of India v. State of Himachal Pradesh, she was part of a team of allied attorneys who successfully challenged an Indian law requiring converts to register with the state authorities

Advocacy Director: Evangelical Fellowship of India (May, 2003 – December 2011)

- Key Achievements: Managing a team of attorneys and activists in Orissa state's communal violence-torn Kandhamal district.
- Developed and led a campaign to advocate for the right of Christians to adopt children until the right was recognised by amendments in the Juvenile Justice Act in 2008.

Recent Publications

- Appealing To Caesar: Legal (And Christian) Responses during Religious Freedom Violations (Christian Trends, Vol 02: Issue 03/ August- September 2012 (52-55))
- India's Defiance of Religious Freedom: A Briefing on 'Anti-Conversion' Laws (IJRF Vol 5:1 2012 (59-71))
- India's Defiance of Religious Freedom: A Briefing on 'Anti-Conversion' Laws Vol. 2 (2012) Issue 2/February: IIRF Bulletin (German language)

Memberships and Associations

- Member of Bar Council of India and the Delhi Bar Association
- Board member, Micah Challenge International
- Board member, The Lausanne Movement.
- General Secretary, Christian Legal Association, India (March, 2005 – June, 2010)

Education

- LLB, Faculty of Law, Delhi University, India (1999-2002)
- Bachelor of Art , Kamala Nehru College, Delhi University, India (1996-1999)

Recognitions

- Participant in International Visitors' Leadership Programme for Human Rights and Advocacy (2010), a programme of the State Department, USA
- Recipient of the Good Samaritan Award, instituted by Advocates International, for service to the Christian community in India in 2008