

Mr. Ted M. Alemayhu is the Founder & Executive Chairman of US Doctors for Africa (USDFA), a non for profit organization that is dedicated to providing strategic support to the continent of Africa with regard to volunteer healthcare professionals, donations of medical supplies and equipment, as well as hosting high-level healthcare seminars involving the African First Ladies and Pan-African Medical Doctors.

Mr. Alemayhu is also the Founder of the African First Ladies Health Summit as well as being a Key contributor to the Formation of the African Union Foundation.

Mr. Alemayhu's work through the US Doctors for Africa organization has been recognized and praised by the World Bank, United Nations, NASQAUQ, President Clinton and The Clinton Global Initiative, Members of Congress, The State Department, The White House, The African Union, and over 20 African First Ladies.

Mr. Alemayhu is a recipient of the United Nations's 2008 Eleanor Roosevelt Humanitarian Award, as well as A recipient of the 2008 Columbia University's The Harry Thalman Life Achievement Award.